

I believe you should make the federal "do not call" law as stringent as the New Jersey version instead of the opposite. We need maximum protection from unwanted sale calls. Why is the federal government always succumbing to big proffit interest instead of protecting citizens?